Call for Applications – FISAF Committees

FISAF International Committees are working under the FISAF Executive Committee. After the General Assembly in Australia new FISAF Executive Committee will nominate committee chairs and members. FISAF International asked actual committee members interests to continue. Now FISAF will ask all member countries to send their applicants and their CV's to Main Office. There will be responsible people in EC for different FISAF Committees with certain duties and responsibilities. New FISAF EC will choose members to FISAF committees from the nominations done by respective full member countries.

Information from FISAF Main Office

We would like to inform our members that not enough applications arrived within a dead line to the FISAF Main Office to fulfill maximum number of members in FISAF Executive Committee.

Information from FISAF vice president

FISAF vice president Stella Diblik would like to inform all of our FISAF members that due to the serious medical problem with her vertebrae she is not able to travel to FISAF World Fitness & Hip Hop Championships 2011 in Australia. She is continuing her position in FISAF EC and wishes all the best to all competitors, judges, officials, visitors, guests and especially to LOC of the event.

New member country – INDIA

FISAF International is proud to inform that we have new member country from India. Many of its competitors are going to be in Australia. Contact details are available in FISAF WebPages.
